

GEORGETOWN SENDS ANSWER TO VIRGINIA

Father Anglim Issues Statement Relieving Orange and Blue From All Contracts.

WILL NOT ALLOW GAMES

Washington, January 19.—Father P. X. Anglim, faculty athletic director of Georgetown University, today gave out a statement regarding the severance of athletic relations between the local institution and the University of Virginia.

Father Anglim has only been in charge of athletics at Georgetown since the start of the present collegiate term and makes no effort to refute the allegations of ineptitude on the part of the local players other than to say that the men who participated in the football game last fall were bona fide students, who had lived up to all requirements incorporated in the agreement between Georgetown and Virginia.

This, of course, is practically saying that he is not responsible for what happened prior to his regime. Although Virginia expressed a willingness to make no reply, other than the following statement, will be made to Virginia's letter:

Georgetown's Statement.

"Unfortunately, in the past, all branches of athletics have been deemed by the university as being of no help to the student body, and Georgetown University does not consider it helpful to athletics or to the student body to indulge in such a practice. We have never undertaken to arrogate to ourselves the right to supervise the athletic code of the University of Virginia, or to dictate its terms.

"No other university in this country has ever assumed this power with respect to Georgetown's code, and it would be admitting an inability to manage our own affairs, which we are not yet ready to concede, to turn over our athletic department to the authorities of Virginia. Except to point out that Virginia played football with Georgetown in 1912 and 1913, both events being subsequent in time to the matters now complained of as grievances, we have no comment to make on that university's present position.

"Speaking for myself personally, I am somewhat at a loss to comprehend the consistency of an expression of high ideals contained in a communication, which is sent to the public press before it is received by the person to whom it is addressed.

"It is understood that the athletic committee of Virginia does not, by its published resolutions, intend to prohibit the student athletic association from fulfilling what are termed existing contracts with Georgetown. Georgetown will voluntarily notify Virginia that its athletic association is under no obligation, contractual or otherwise, with us. We not only will not insist on, but in the present circumstances we will not permit, baseball and basketball contests with the University of Virginia team."

CAROLINA LEAGUE ADOPTS SCHEDULE

Greensboro, N. C., January 19.—At a meeting here this afternoon of representatives of the six clubs in the North Carolina Baseball League a schedule for the 1914 season was adopted. The season opens April 23 and closes September 8. The schedule provides for a home game for each club in the season at Greensboro, Raleigh, Durham, and Charlotte at Asheville, teams representing these six towns composing the league.

Change Boxing Dates.

Los Angeles, Cal., January 19.—Lancey Lightfoot, Eddie Patrick, Sam Harris, and Tim McGrath met Promoter McCarey today and arranged dates, posted forfeits and settled all details for the ring contest. The Johnnie Williams-Eddie Campbell bantamweight fight was moved up to the afternoon of Saturday, January 21. The middleweight bout between Jimmy Clabby and "Sailor" Ed Peterson was given the evening of the afternoon of Thursday, February 12. Williams and Campbell will jump into immediate training here today, and will be out of the streets to-morrow.

CAMP EXPECTS FEW CHANGES IN RULES FOR FOOTBALL

New Haven, Conn., January 19.—Except for the addition of a few rules, Walter Camp, Yale's athletic adviser, predicts few football changes for next season. He said to-night:

"Football has reached such a high state of perfection that there is little room for improvement in the rules. Of late years the possibility of injury has been reduced to a minimum, which has resulted in a more open and more scientific style of play. In this fact lies the possibility for a change in the rules, namely, the introduction of the field judge."

IN THE WAKE OF THE GAME

By Gus Malbert

CONTRACTS GO OUT TO-DAY.

Fourteen contracts will go forward to-day to prospective members of the Richmond club next season; eight have already been signed and the contracts filed with Secretary Farrell, of the National Association. By sheer ability as a schemer, we arrive at the conclusion that, since no club in the Virginia League is allowed to carry more than thirteen players, including a playing manager, eight of the merry men will have their car fare paid to Richmond from wherever they are must find some way of getting back home again.

From this out the icebound fan can work himself into the veriest frenzy of a thaw and locate the lucky ones who are to have salaries paid to them regularly from the coffers of the Broad Street Park Baseball Corporation. Incidentally that eight drifters may be increased, as Mr. Ryan kindly informs us that, he is still engaged in combing the brushes for others who are willing to parade their goods for his critical eye.

CHARLEY STRAIN WILL STAY HERE.

Charley Strain may not be sold to Indianapolis, with the probability being that he may not, our fellow-townsmen being young and frequently ambitious, may eventually develop into a class "AA" prospect, but he hasn't arrived yet. More likely Strain will be found in the ranks of the Colts come April 16. Ryan is surely not going to strengthen any other team in the league by giving away Strain, unless he gets value for the lad; to act differently would be very nearly akin to not only furnishing the rope wherewith to hang one's self, but make the noose and drawing tail around the neck.

The proposed visit to the yard was postponed. There was too much other business to discuss in the secretarial sanctum when Messrs. Ryan and Bradley foregathered. Just what trend the discourse or dialogue pursued is known only to Messrs. Bradley and Ryan and the fair typist, verbal bout found both contestants in fair shape, somewhat winded, but ready for the bell when the second engagement happens this forenoon.

SHIFTING DOG NEWTON.

Ryan's announcement that he will shift Doc Newton to second base will be met with favor by the regular customers. Doc has a habit of rounding into form rather late. He is by no means one of the early birds, that he will have a shorter throw, with less strenuous work at the mid-station than in the short field. Drifting into the vernacular, Newton should be able to cut up around second.

Our new manager will have four backstops from which to select his assistant. The player limit rule of the league inhibits keeping more than one, and Ryan will have to either become the regular or the relief catcher, loan, Worth, Berger and Mace form the quartet from which the selection is to be made.

Incidentally, the schedule meeting of the league will be held shortly, probably about February 1.

VIRGINIA-GEORGETOWN RELATIONS.

Since the faculty of the University of Virginia has decided unanimously to sever athletic relations with Georgetown University, friends of both institutions, without discussing the merits of the case, will miss the annual conflict between two schools. Natural rivals, it is indeed a pity that anything should have arisen making necessary such drastic action.

Immediately after the game last November we called attention to the fact that the football game then would probably be the last played by the two institutions. Our opinion was quickly decreed by those who were supposed to know. However, our informant was so close to the sentiment at the university that we placed the utmost confidence in the story of the impending break. Later results have proved that our confidence was not misplaced.

Our friendship for the two institutions is too great to enter into any discussion of the merits of the case. This, however, is true: Any institution has the right to establish its eligibility code and to demand that every rival meet these requirements, or else sever relations.

MORE FEDERAL LEAGUE.

Gradually sentiment is crystallizing and sound judgment pointing to the fact that, regardless of publicity and glowing accounts, the path of the Federal League is to be rather thorny. A break nearly came during the recent meeting of the magnates of the new league when Weeghman, of Chicago, threatened to disrupt the organization by drawing out. If one man can smash the organization, it indeed hasn't very far to go.

Incidentally, as brought to light by one of our facetious brethren, that Kansas City-Toronto jump is rather costly, and a tremendous walk when schedules must be met.

WESTERVELT SIGNS CONTRACT.

Fred Westervelt announces that he has signed his contract to once more handle the indicator in the American Association, and at an increase in salary. "None of the Federal League for me," quoth Fred. "Me for the place where the pay checks come regularly and where I know that they come regularly." Which proves that Fred is sometimes wiser than at other times.

Willie Ritchie has written Tommy Murphy's manager that he will meet the Harlem fighter February 22 if Willie's ankle gets well in time. If he can't meet Tommy on the birthday of the father of his country he will try to meet him in April. Why not make it April 1—that's All-Fools' Day? In a nutshell, Willie is going to be champion during the Panama Exposition, and is going to pick up as much of the soft money on the coast as he can carry away. For which we haven't the heart to blame Ritchie or his manager.

If the delegates from all over Virginia will kindly study the proposed boxing law calling for six-round goes to no decision, they will find that nothing they enact into a law during the present session of the Legislature will lead to so many or give real and helpful pleasure as this same piece of legislation.

Gradually the number of soccer enthusiasts in Richmond is growing. The young men who are playing the game and giving a practical demonstration of its attraction deserve all the support given them, and more. Soccer is not only interesting, but it is a man's game, requiring skill in no mean degree, coupled with physical fitness.

We have an application from Ray Cantwell for a job with the Colts. Last season, as Miss May Cantwell, he forms the third base for the Bloomer Girls while that aggregation of girls (?) was giving an exhibition here. Just another illustration that all things are not what they seem, even on the ball field.

Before the week is over R. L. Goldberg, cartoonist, good fellow, writer of sports for the New York Evening Mail, globe-trotter, etc., will be entertained by the local scene. Mr. Goldberg is showing Richmond how he makes his cartoons. He is at the Keith vaudeville house.

SECOND AND DIRTY LOCKER WAGER WITH ODDS

Turner and Kilonis Are Winners of Double Wrestling Bill at Academy.

Martin Leonard and Bob Diry, the former from New York and the latter from Chicago, were eliminated from the middleweight wrestling title at the Academy of Music last night, when Leonard went down and out in two straight falls before Leonard, while Diry, after capturing the first fall was taken care of by Joe Turner, present holder of the Police Gazette belt, in the next two falls.

A crowded, though hot heavy house sat through three hours and a half of the classic wrestling good fortune has brought this way in many days and every bleated soul that had their fill of excitement. Both the Leonard-Kilonis and the Turner-Diry match were fast. The boys worked with a vim and vigor that always looks good to the audience. Kilonis and Turner were strong favorites, and the fans were failed to show their partisanship.

Leonard and Kilonis were the first to go to the mat. The New Yorker was stockily built, but several pounds lighter than his opponent. After thirty-one minutes Kilonis gained the first fall, and took the second in twenty-four minutes. Leonard asked for a return match, but at 155 pounds, the victory of the Greek was, however, a popular one.

It took Diry twenty-four minutes to throw Turner in the first fall of their go-round, a ten-minute intermission, Joe came back strong, and in twenty-one minutes had pinned Diry's shoulders to the mat, making the bout even. The fall was probably the prettiest of the evening. Turner coming out, an armlock and grabbing Diry in a body scissors, from which the Chicagoan was unable to break.

Robert Phillips, referee at the ball park in Washington, acted as referee, and pleased the fans. Between the falls Cullanis was introduced and asked to return match from George Herbert, to whom he lost the featherweight title by default in their match a few days ago. Herbert has already agreed to return and the two days' rest is to take on Diry again, the Westerner claiming that he was not in the best of condition last night, because of a cold.

R. L. Goldberg, better known as Rubie Goldberg, now showing how he draws the cartoons that have made him famous in the local theatre, was also introduced to the audience, and was warmly welcomed.

The secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union has asked for a mail vote on the proposition of giving $2,000 of the union's funds to the American Olympic committee. President L.D. fully indorses the plan.

BOTH CLAIMING MUCH PROGRESS

Federal and Organization Leagues Satisfied—New League Claims Major League Players.

Chicago, January 19.—Developments to-day in the newest baseball war left both sides—the aggressive outlaws of the Federal League and the organized "ball"—confident of success. Predictions that the new league would give up the show in a short time were made by President Johnson of the American League, and President Murphy, of the Chicago Nationals.

Lack of preparation in a number of towns, although the opening of the season is less than three months away, was given as a leading reason by prophets who expect the Federals' end soon.

Meantime at the headquarters of the Federal League there was a busy scene all day. Among the visitors were Russell Ford and Ed Sweeney, the New York Americans' battery, both of whom were closeted with Joe Tinker, manager of the Chicago club, and President of the Federal League. Both of them had signed contracts with the Federals, the former of both of them, traded to the Philadelphia Nationals, and the latter to the Pittsburgh Pirates, the Pittsburghers with "Doc" Gessler, the Pittsburghers with "Doc" Gessler, the Pittsburghers with "Doc" Gessler.

Despite reports that Killifer, of the Philadelphia Nationals, formerly of the Chicago Federals, had not signed with the Federals, President Gilmore this afternoon exhibited contracts signed by these men. Thirty-three major league players have signed with the league, he said, eight of them having joined the new organization since Saturday.

Infielder McCarthy, of Pittsburgh, was a caller at the office early this evening, and consulted with Tinker, Pelix Chouhara, formerly of the Chicago Americans, and later with Desha, also consulted with the Federal League, and indicated that he would sign with them.

William Brennan, National League umpire, this afternoon signed a three-year contract with the Federals. Seven major league umpires are on their way here to talk with the Federals, Gilmore said.

Weeghman, to-day, that he would stand by the new league, he said since the stormy meeting of Saturday he was sure it would be a success. In this connection Murphy claimed to have information that Weeghman had been carrying three clubs against "carrying three clubs" in a verbal attack on him that had wounded that "cannot be healed."

Tener Approves Thirty-Three Contracts.

New York, January 19.—President John K. Tener, of the National League, today proclaimed thirty-three contracts, Cincinnati tops the list with twenty-two men, eight of whom are veterans. Heine Groh is the only first-year player for more than a year; he signed for three seasons.

Smith to Fight Willard.

San Francisco, Cal., January 19.—Gambino Smith, champion heavyweight, and Jess Willard, were thirty-three contracts, Cincinnati tops the list with twenty-two men, eight of whom are veterans. Heine Groh is the only first-year player for more than a year; he signed for three seasons.
